SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION FOR DEATH

In November, we draw to the end of our church calendar. The readings during this time invite us to reflect on our mortality and the need to be ready to pass from this world into eternity.

This is an excerpt of the document the Archdiocese put together to help people with end of life preparations. It can be helpful for individuals or families of loved ones approaching that time.

"For those who die in Christ, life is changed, not ended." It would be shortsighted to prepare only for the end of what is temporary, and not plan well for the beginning of what is everlasting. For this reason, those who are seriously ill or dying are exhorted to avail themselves to all the spiritual helps that Christ's Church offers.

As stated in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "Thus, just as the sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and the Eucharist form a unity called 'the sacraments of Christian initiation,' so too it can be said that penance, the anointing of the sick and the Eucharist as viaticum constitute at the end of Christian life 'the sacraments that prepare for our heavenly homeland' or the sacraments that complete the earthly pilgrimage."³⁰

Furthermore, because we believe that not only our soul, but also our body, will participate in eternal life, we need to arrange for proper treatment of what will be returned to us on the last day. In particular, this means a Catholic funeral and burial. These rites will be our last act, and can be a means of Christian witness even after our death.

Therefore, it is vitally important that appointed decision-makers, such as the one designated as the Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care, and next of kin be aware of one's desire to receive the sacraments of the Church and the last Not all advance directive forms are the same. Study closely and get guidance before signing any form. Furthermore, not all advance directives respect Catholic values. Remember to plan for what is eternal. Those who are seriously ill should seek the Sacraments and pastoral care. 13 rites as death approaches. The next of kin should also be aware of the patient's desire for a Catholic funeral Mass and bodily burial.

COMMUNITY PARISH NEWSA HUGE THANK YOU!!

Thank you to the St. Gregory students for coming to St. Malachy's to celebrate our feast day last Monday. Your voices filled the church and sounded wonderful. And thank you for being so well behaved. God Bless!

OCIA

On Sunday, November 9th at 1pm in St. Gregory Parish Hall, there will be an introductory session for the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA) - which used to be referred to as RCIA. This is the class for those who are discerning being initiated into the Catholic Church or for those who might be baptized Catholic but who have not yet received Holy Communion or Confirmation. Please come even if you are just interested in learning more about it. Contact the parish office if you have any questions.

Mission Appeal Next Weekend

Next weekend, Father Anthony Chendumalli will be celebrating all Masses at St. Gregory and St. Malachy. He will give a mission appeal and a second collection will be taken for the Mission Coop.

ST. GREGORY THE GREAT CATHOLIC SCHOOL

November Virtue of the Month - Kindness

Saint Reflection: St. Martin de Porres

St. Martin de Porres was a Dominican lay brother in Peru who did much of the manual labor around the friary. He was known among his brothers for his constant kindness. He saved novices from getting into trouble, cared for sick brothers no one else had noticed, and was even benevolent towards sick and injured animals. He viewed his tasks of cooking, cleaning, and caring for others as his way of showing God's love.

How did St. Martin live the virtue of Kindness?

Pony Express 5K/Half Marathon Leadership Needed

Do you love running and our school community? The St. Gregory PTO is looking for someone passionate about both to take the lead on the Pony Express 5K/Half Marathon Committee! The PTO helps with this event each year, but we're hoping to find a dedicated person (or small team) to take charge and keep this wonderful tradition alive. It's a great fundraiser that supports our students and school programs. If interested or want to learn more about what's involved, please reach out to PTO President Marcy Deters at 785-562-7319. A huge thank you to Steph Coble, Jody Lauer, and Crystal Roudybush for all that you did to build this event and make it such a successful community and fundraising event for our school!!
