ST. MARY MAGDALENE

The memorial of Saint Mary Magdalene was elevated to a Feast on 3 June 2016 by Pope Francis during the Jubilee of Mercy. We cite part of the decree: “The decision is situated in the current ecclesial context, which calls upon us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of women, the new evangelization and the greatness of the mystery of divine mercy.”

We know that Mary Magdalene was a member of the group of Jesus’s disciples. She followed him even to the foot of the cross and to the garden where he was buried. Saint Gregory reminds us that she was the first testis divinae misericordiae (witness to divine mercy). The Gospel of John recounts that Mary Magdalene wept because she could not find the Lord’s body (see Jn. 20:11). Jesus had mercy on her, allowing her to recognize him as “Rabbouni”, thus transforming her tears into Easter joy.

On the one hand, she had the honor of being the prima testis (first witness) of the resurrection of the Lord, the first to see the empty tomb, and the first to hear the truth of his resurrection. Christ had a special consideration and mercy for this woman who showed such great love toward Him that she sought him anxiously in the garden with such suffering, with lacrimas humilitatis (humble tears), as Saint Anselm called them....

In addition, it is specifically in the garden of the resurrection that the Lord says to Mary Magdalene: “Do not hold on to me”. This is an invitation directed not only to Mary, but also to the entire Church, to enter into an experience of faith that surpasses any materialistic appropriation or human understanding of the divine mystery. It has an ecclesial scope! It is a good lesson for any disciple of Jesus not to seek human securities and worldly titles, but faith in the Living and Risen Christ!

Precisely because she was an eyewitness of the Risen Christ, she was also the first to witness to Christ’s resurrection before the apostles. She fulfilled the mandate of the Risen One: “Go to my brothers and tell them.... Mary Magdalen went and announced to the disciples, ‘I have seen the Lord’ and then reported what he told her” (Jn. 20:17-18). In this way, she became, as already stated, an evangelizer, that is, a messenger who proclaims the good news of the resurrection of the Lord, or, as Rabanus Maurus and Saint Thomas Aquinas used to say, apostolorum apostola (apostle to the apostles) because she announced to the apostles what they, in their turn, would proclaim throughout the entire world. The Angelic Doctor was right in using this term, applying it to Mary Magdalene. She is the witness of the Risen Christ and announced the message of the resurrection, like the other Apostles.
