ST. JOHN BOSCO | FEAST DAY: JAN. 31ST

Saint John Bosco's theory of education could well be used in today's schools. It was a preventive system, rejecting corporal punishment and placing students in surroundings removed from the likelihood of committing sin. He advocated frequent reception of the sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion. He combined catechetical training and fatherly guidance, seeking to unite the spiritual life with one's work, study and play.

Encouraged during his youth in Turin to become a priest so he could work with young boys, Saint John Bosco was ordained in 1841. His service to young people started when he met a poor orphan in Turin, and instructed him in preparation for receiving Holy Communion. He then gathered young apprentices and taught them catechism.

After serving as chaplain in a hospice for working girls, Don Bosco opened the Oratory of St. Francis de Sales for boys. Several wealthy and powerful patrons contributed money, enabling him to provide two workshops for the boys, shoemaking and tailoring.

By 1856, the institution had grown to 150 boys and had added a printing press for publication of religious and catechetical pamphlets. John's interest in vocational education and publishing justify him as patron of young apprentices and Catholic publishers.

Saint John Bosco's preaching fame spread and by 1850 he had trained his own helpers because of difficulties in retaining young priests. In 1854, he and his followers informally banded together, inspired by Saint Francis de Sales.

With Pope Pius IX's encouragement, John gathered 17 men and founded the Salesians in 1859. Their activity concentrated on education and mission work. Later, he organized a group of Salesian Sisters to assist girls.

Fr. Bosco died on January 31, 1888. The call for his canonization was immediate. Pope Pius XI knew Fr. Bosco personally and agreed, declaring him blessed in 1929. St. John Bosco was canonized on Easter Sunday, 1934 and he was given the title, "Father and Teacher of Youth."

Reflection

John Bosco educated the whole person—body and soul united. He believed that Christ's love and our faith in that love should pervade everything we do—work, study, play. For John Bosco, being a Christian was a full-time effort, not a once-a-week, Mass-on-Sunday experience. It is searching and finding God and Jesus in everything we do, letting their love lead us. Yet, because John realized the importance of job-training and the self-worth and pride that come with talent and ability, he trained his students in the trade crafts, too.

ST. GREGORY THE GREAT CATHOLIC SCHOOL

January Virtue of the Month - Orderliness

This month, we are practicing the virtue of orderliness. Orderliness is keeping oneself physically clean and neat and one's belongings in good order. When we work on the virtue of orderliness, we think about how we can practice this virtue at home. Orderliness looks like making our bed, or setting the table. It also looks like taking care of our own needs, like brushing our teeth and combing our hair. When we take care of our needs, we give glory to God by caring for His Temple.

Dear Jesus, help us to practice the virtue of orderliness whether we are at school or at home. Sometimes we don't like cleaning our rooms or making our beds, but we know that practicing orderliness is what You ask of us. We want to be a saint and to please You! Amen.

Good News Online Book Fair

From January 19th - February 2nd, you can shop online at www.goodnewsbookfair.com/virtual-fair. Enter code STGREGORY26 at checkout for our school to receive credit for your purchase. Free shipping for all orders over $35. Good News Book Fair has a group of curators made up of librarians, authors, and parents who read every book and make sure the books are age-appropriate and clean reads. Sample books will be available to look at after each Mass next weekend.

Class Coin War to Benefit the Olmsted Family

We would like to invite you to participate in a change war to support Veronica Olmsted and her family as she bravely fights cancer.

To show our support, the students and staff will be hosting a class coin war beginning this weekend and going through Friday, February 6. The class that raises the most money will be thanked with a 30-minute game time in the gym and a snack.

Donation containers are located at the back of church this weekend and also the weekend of Jan. 31-Feb. 1 and will be set up in the school front hallway during those weeks. We encourage everyone to bring in cash or change to support the Olmsted family.
